

Cultural Capital- Reflections

Bees - Explorers of Nature

| | |
|--------------|---|
| Artist | Georgia O'Keeffe, renowned for her large-scale paintings of flowers and landscapes. |
| Poet | April Pulley Sayre is a poet and naturalist who writes captivating poetry about the environment for young readers. Her books, such as "Raindrops Roll" and "Full of Fall," feature rhythmic and descriptive poems that explore different aspects of nature, including weather, seasons, and wildlife. |
| Musician | Rimsky Korsakov, known for his composition Flight of the Bumblebee |
| Naturalist | David Attenborough, a legendary broadcaster and natural historian who can share fascinating insights about the outdoors. |
| Photographer | Ansel Adams, famous for his black-and-white photographs of majestic landscapes, including national parks and wilderness areas. |

Butterflies – Nature's Symphony

| | |
|-------------|--|
| Artist | Claude Monet, known for his impressionistic paintings capturing the vibrant colors and light of nature, particularly his famous water lily series. |
| Poet | Mary Oliver, a Pulitzer Prize-winning poet celebrated for her profound and introspective works centered around nature and the interconnectedness of all living things. |
| Musician | Yo-Yo Ma, a world-renowned cellist who has performed in stunning outdoor settings, such as the Yellowstone National Park, creating an exquisite fusion of music and nature. |
| Botanist | Jane Goodall, an esteemed primatologist and conservationist who can inspire students with her vast knowledge of plants and their ecological significance. |
| Storyteller | Indigenous storyteller and environmental activist Robin Wall Kimmerer, known for her captivating stories that blend science, indigenous wisdom, and the importance of stewardship towards the natural world. |

Hedgehogs – Colours of the Earth

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| Artist | Vincent van Gogh, famous for his vibrant and expressive paintings depicting landscapes, sunflowers, and starry nights. |
| Poet | William Wordsworth, a prominent figure of the Romantic era whose poems celebrate the beauty of nature and its transformative power on the human spirit. |
| Musician | Enya, an internationally acclaimed singer-songwriter known for her ethereal melodies that evoke the serenity and wonder of the natural world. |
| Environmentalist | Wangari Maathai, a Nobel Peace Prize laureate and environmental activist who founded the Green Belt Movement, emphasizing the importance of tree planting and environmental conservation. |
| Nature Illustrator | John James Audubon, renowned for his detailed and lifelike illustrations of birds and other wildlife, showcasing the diversity and splendor of the natural world. |

Squittels – Wildlife Wonders

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Artist | Charley Harper, celebrated for his minimalistic and stylized illustrations of birds and animals, capturing their essence through bold lines and vibrant colours. |
| Poet | Avis Harley is a poet who specializes in creating nature-themed poetry for children. Her collection "Leaf by Leaf: Autumn Poems" and "The Monarch's Progress: Poems with Wings" showcase her ability to weave vivid descriptions of nature into accessible and engaging verses. |
| Musician | Hans Zimmer, a prolific film composer known for his breathtaking scores that often incorporate the sounds of nature, lending an immersive quality to cinematic experiences. |
| Environmental Scientist | E.O. Wilson, a prominent biologist and conservationist who has dedicated his life to studying and protecting biodiversity, inspiring students with his insights into ecosystems and conservation. |
| Wildlife photographer | Frans Lanting, recognized for his striking photographs that document the beauty and behavior of wildlife in their natural habitats. |

Foxes – Nature's Canvas

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| Artist | Anish Kapoor, a world-renowned sculptor known for his large-scale and captivating artworks that often interact with the surrounding natural environment. |
| Poet | Emily Dickinson, an iconic American poet whose introspective and evocative poems frequently draw inspiration from nature, exploring themes of beauty, solitude, and the mysteries of existence. |
| Musician | Antonio Vivaldi, a Baroque composer famous for his composition "The Four Seasons," which vividly portrays the changing moods and landscapes of each season. |
| Landscape Architect | Frederick Law Olmsted, considered the father of American landscape architecture, renowned for designing iconic parks and green spaces, such as Central Park in New York City. |
| Nature Writer | Galen Rowell, recognized for his stunning photographs of wilderness landscapes, including mountains, glaciers, and deserts, capturing the grandeur and drama of the natural world. |